

Seattle Musician - 3 / 12
From: "Live News" - 3. 25.2010

Among Conscious Records artists on tour this year are Chili Jackson, who will be in California, Seattle's own Ditch who will be on a nationwide jaunt, and Portland's Adam Zwig, who will also do a U.S. tour. Chili Jackson's R & B influenced sound is similar to John Mayer and is also reminiscent of 60's R & B artists. Chili sings beautiful love songs and has an awesome backing band of seasoned L.A. musicians.. Ditch continues to put on spectacular shows showcasing their monster heavy rock energy. Word on the street is that they've added a second guitar player for the upcoming tour. Adam Zwig, sounds like a cross between a modern Neil Young and Bob Dylan. He also gives personal growth seminars (he's a Ph.D. in psychology), earning him the Seattle Musician titles of "professor of rockology", and "rock n roll guru" ! However, his upcoming tour appears to be a music tour and not a psychology event. For more info, visit: <http://www.consciousrecordsmusic.com>
